

DRAWS YOU.....

TO DUBLIN FOR ST.PATRICK'S DAY
£99 RETURN WITH AER ARANN

Taking place every year on March 17th, St. Patrick's Day is Ireland's biggest festival with the Dublin celebrations set to be bigger and better than ever in 2010. With live music, a grand parade and a host of events organised throughout the city, this is one Irish experience that should not be missed. And with Aer Arann, there's no reason not to go!

The airline is offering a dedicated St. Patrick's Day special return fare of £99 direct from Gloucester to Dublin departing on March 16th, returning on either March 18th or 19th Verline Leo, Business Development and Operations Landside Manager said, "Gloucestershire Airport is really pleased to be a part of this initiative and feel that it is a great opportunity for the travelling public. Our free parking available at the airport will be the start of a fantastic getaway and our friendly and efficient staff will ensure you get a taste of Ireland before you have even touched down.

For further information and to book your flights visit www.AerArann.com or www.gloucestershireairport.co.uk. Gloucestershire Airport is also available on 01452 857700 ext 223.

For further information on the St. Patrick's Day festival visit www.stpatricksfestival.ie or check out www.visitdublin.com for great hotel deals and details on additional activities and things to do in Dublin city and surrounding areas.

