

Memorial Service for Martin Bromage

Following a private cremation, a memorial service will be held for Martin Bromage at Gloucester Cathedral on Friday 5th February at 1.30pm. This will be followed by a reception at the Hatherley Manor Hotel from 3pm onwards.

Martin's family have requested that donations be made to Help for Heroes, care of the Funeral Directors, SC & BS Cocks, 59 Hucclecote Road, Hucclecote, Gloucester, GL3 3TL or via Martin's website www.justgiving.com/flytoaus

Martin was tragically killed on the first leg of his flight from Gloucestershire Airport to Sydney, Australia during which he had hoped to raise £150 000 for Help for Heroes. It is clear from the comments and messages we have received from staff, operators and the public that Martin's spirit of adventure and determination had captured the imagination of many people. We have decided, therefore, to adopt Help for Heroes as our nominated charity for 2010 in Martin's memory.

We plan to host a number of events throughout the coming year for this worthwhile cause and will update our website as arrangements are finalised.
