

PRESS RELEASE – 29th November 2010

Santa comes to Staverton!!

Gloucestershire Airport is pleased to announce the arrival of Father Christmas! Santa and his little helpers will be at Staverton on Saturday 11th December with our resident airline Manx2.com, who will be offering pleasure flights in their 19-seat Dornier 228.

Enjoy a 25-minute flight around the Cotswolds and, when you land, Santa will be there to meet you in our terminal building. He will, of course, have presents for all the children and there'll be mince pies for Mums and Dads too!

Gloucestershire Airport Business Development Manager, Kim Davenport said; "This is a great way to begin the holiday season. Whether it's an early Christmas present or a chance to see the chimneys and rooftops from a reindeer's eye view, it's bound to bring a smile to everyone's face!"

"There are also plenty of other unique Christmas gift ideas available at the airport. Why not visit the Pilot Shop while you're here or check out the clubs and flying schools who offer trial flying lessons, helicopter rides, aerobatics and vintage pleasure flights? You might just find that unique gift that you're looking for."

The flights depart at 1230 and 1330 and can be booked at www.manx2.com Prices are £25* per person, which includes a present for the youngsters.

* Booking fee applies for card payments. Under 8's must be accompanied by an adult on the flight.
