Gloucestershire Airport proudly celebrated the 2nd anniversary of Manx2.com's scheduled operator flights from Gloucester to the Isle of Man and Jersey last week. The event was well attended by Gloucestershire Airport staff, tenants, local Councillors and MP's. Manx2.com operates a 19 seater, Dornier aircraft on the routes up to three times per day, which has attracted passengers as far a field as Cornwall and Devon. Mark Ryan, Gloucestershire Airport Director and Noel Hayes CEO of Manx2.com both shared the sentiment that the last 2 years had been a success based on the effort of a well balanced and multi-skilled team.

To complete the celebrations, frequent flyer, Alan Evans, the 40 000th passenger to have travelled from Gloucester to IOM was presented with gifts by Cory Pockett, a young student from Cheltenham with a passion for aviation and a dream to become a Manx2.com pilot one day. During the presentation, MP Geoff Corkish from IOM, made a point of inviting everybody to visit "their small island"
